Customer Services - 2022-08-02 - Orders

Are you wondering where your order is? Track it to find out if it is on its way to you!

Once your order has been sent from our warehouse you will be sent a dispatch note which will contain a tracking number for the service that you have selected.

Please ensure you have checked each of your mailboxes such as your junk folder before contacting customer service. If you cannot find your dispatch note, please contact customer services.
